DREAM GAME SATURDAY

All Main Line feet for miles around are expected to point toward Narberth's Community Playground tomorrow when the Main Line League will present its second annual Dream Game.

The colorful fray, played for the benefit of the players' disability fund, ended in a 12-inning deadlock last year when President Walter Hanley ended hostilities because of the terrific heat. This year's affair is expected to prove every bit as thrilling as the initial classic.

It begins promptly at 3:15 P. M. and features players picked by the fans, representing teams from the Eastern and Western Divisions of the Main Line League.

Narberth's tossers will enjoy a welcome respite for they have fought their way to the top of the league in recent weeks. Two victories last week-end gave Jack Jefferies' boys a comfortable lead over second-place Gladwyne. The homesters boast 18 victories in 23 starts while Gladwyne has 15 wins and 6 losses. Manoa dropped out of third place last week-end by bowing twice, being replaced by Berwyn.

Jefferies' employees measured Drexel Hill Saturday by 3-0 figures, but had plenty of trouble before pushing one run over in the seventh and adding a brace of markers in the next frame. Sunday the locals jolted Manoa, 7-3 and gave one of the sloppiest performances seen on the diamond in years. They were charged with no less than six errors.

Al Herrmann, fiery righthander, got credit for Saturday's game, giving up three hits while his teammates slapped nine off the veteran Johnny Burns. Herrmann struck out six and walked two. Burns fanned only one and passed three.

Harry Fox paced Narberth with the stick with two safeties. Jack Eachus boasted a double.

Bud Clancy, who returned recently, earned his second mound win when he downed Manoa. The lean righthander fanned four and issued two walks. George Erb, who did the chucking for Manoa, had seven strikeouts and walked only one.

Claude Bailey, giant lefthander for Narberth, poled a triple which might have been a homer if fast fielding had not cut him off at the plate on a great play in the second. He poled one to the road in left-center after Bud Walker singled. Jack Eachus and Roger Malseed smacked doubles for the local cause.

At press time no report had been made on selections for the Eastern Division dream team. Narberth players hot in the running for berths: Tanny Ralston, second base; Harry Fox, centerfield; Buddy Walker, first base; Roger Malseed, rightfield, and Jack Eachus, catcher.

JOHN MULLIGAN.

IN THE EVENT OF RAIN

This Saturday, the Dream Game will be postponed to 3 P. M. Sunday, at the Narberth Playground.

PLAYGROUND

The Hobby Show at the Narberth Playground was won by Shirley Bailey who displayed over 300 samples of different kinds of merchandise. Warren Vincent won second with a rare collection of pennies. Pencil sketch drawings of baseball players captured third prize for Jim Pruitt. Fourth place went to Elizabeth McNutt with a collection of tropical fish.

George Breslow won the older boys' and girls' shuffle board contest from a field of twenty contestants.

The children's shuffleboard contest was won by Mary Teresa Murphy.

Handicraft work completed at the playground this summer is on display in the window of Davis' store.

Haverford Playground girls' team won over Narberth on Monday by a score of 11-9 in a exciting game of softball.

MEMORIAL DEBT'S PAID

Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, last summer contracted a debt of $1400 in moving the cannon and memorial tablet from the Community Building on the Narberth Playground to the present attractive memorial grouping at Windsor avenue and Wynnewood road. The veterans tried various stunts to raise money, but July Fourth found them still $250 in debt. So successful was the fireworks occasion that Chairman John J. Cabrey turned the $250 over to the Legion, and that is the payoff.

Host at G. O. Picnic

First annual picnic of the West Manayunk Republican Organization is this Saturday at Township Commissioner C. Brooke Jones' woods, Woodbine avenue, Penn Valley. Over a thousand guests are expected. There will be beer, food and so on.

BOY SCOUT COLUMN

by WM. E. FERGUSON

Camp Delmont has closed its 26th season, the most successful in its history. A full Main Line record will appear in OUR TOWN next week. Monday night, after camp had closed, 36 camp leaders attended the annual Staff Dinner at the Green Mountain House, in Schuylkill. Camp Director C. D. Pettigill was toastmaster. Scout Executive Rex L. Gary, one of the after-dinner speakers, made the remark that this was the first time in his 18 years of scouting that he felt he could leave camp and have it run as smoothly as though he were in camp.

Scouters of the Main Line District are asked not to forget the Pow-wow at Camp Delmont, September 17 and 18. Registrations are restricted to 300, so early registration is asked on the part of all scouts planning to attend.

A Sea Scout exhibit will be on view in the lobby of the Egyptian Theater, Cynwyd, in conjunction with that theater's showing of the picture "Lord Jeff," a story of the British Naval Training School, starring Freddie Bartholomew and Mickey Rooney.

Merion No. 1

Merion-Liberty is pleased to have had seven of its scouts in Camp Delmont, official Valley Forge Council camp, for part of the summer. They were: John Mraz, Bob Watrous, Bill Blake, Johnny Vogel, Ray Cooney, Jerry Lain and Bob Rittenhouse.

We are more than proud of Bob Watrous, who was elected to the Order of the Arrow, honorary camping fraternity.

Ray Watrous, troop quartermaster for the past three years, has resigned his position because he is going to college in the fall. John Mraz has been assigned the quartermaster's post in his place.

Bob Miller is to continue his rank of senior patrol leader. Irvin Daubert will be junior assistant scoutmaster in charge of advancement. Dick Custer will be junior assistant scoutmaster and scribe, Bill Gale will be troop librarian, and Paul Blakeman and Charlie Beyer will continue as junior assistant scoutmasters.

We have a new assistant scoutmaster in Herb Egmore, Jr., an old scout in the Liberty Troop.

Official fall meetings for the Liberty Troop will start late in September.

IRVIN DAUBERT,
Troop Reporter.

Sh-h-h . . .

Two brothers fighting started a neighborhood ruckus near Narberth's "night clubs," Saturday midnight or so. . . So another guy stepped in to arbitrate, and to demonstrate that blessed are not all peacemakers. . .

For yet a third brother, thinking the peacemaker was fighting his brethren, waded in on the outsider. That was on Iona avenue between Woodbine and Meeting House lane. The irate residents there are now about ready to help the W. C. T. U. in getting local (dry) option for the town, next year.

GENE DAVIS IS BACK

He returned home Monday from Hahnemann, to continue his convalescence from typhoid. The whole town was rooting for him, and everyone is glad he is home again.

ROTARY CLUB

By courtesy of Past President L. Stanley King, the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at its meeting Tuesday held W. Marlboro Addison urge an international police force.

"Security is one of our greatest concerns," he said. "Whether in the home, on the highway or in business, it is obtained by law, and by the police authority that enforces the law. . . . International peace can come only when our country exerts its mighty will for peace, by boycotting aggressor nations and lining up with the democracies who stand for peace. . . . Americans are essentially so idealistic that when war starts abroad, we'll find ourselves temperamentally unable to avoid helping a wronged nation—so we may as well help now, while there is a chance."

Next Tuesday's luncheon will feature two outstanding speakers—the Burgess of Narberth, Frank A. Schrepfer, and the president of the Lower Merion Township Commission, Julius Ziegert. They will appear as a courtesy to William H. Durbin, last year's club president, who is chairman of the Community Service Committee.

RANGER LODGE NEWS LETTER

In the two weeks since our last communication with you, events have fallen on thick and fast on the Lodge dock etc. Herewith is a bird's-eye view:

Most satisfying athletic triumph: Our 2-1 baseball victory over Camp Hawthorne, who were out to even things after our earlier victory. Don Smith was the local hero when he walked to first, stole second and third, via the Ty Cobb route, and dashed home with the deciding run after an outfield catch. Pitcher Johnny Stoudt kept the opposition well out of mischief by hurling a three hitter and Bob Collins accounted for the other run.

Most interesting defeat: Our loss to Hawthorne's experienced track team. Much of the sting was removed by splendid individual performances: Herb Phillips won the 10-year old dash, Bob Rowley was only an inch behind Hawthorne's intercollegiate sprinter, Jack Conway took the 16-year old high jump, Harry Middleton and Sandy Whitwell, 14-year-olds, finished first and second in their jump and George Paine and Harley Anderson tied for first in the 18-year-old class. Jack Conway also won a first in the broad jump, as did Rhys Thomas and Herman Schaeffer in the 10- and 18-year classes, respectively.

The score saw-sawed back and forth until the relays—our only weakness. Our lone win here was produced by the fleet 14-year-old quartette composed of Hugh and Stuart Dunlap, Dick Longaker and Charlie Dykes.

Most ambitious trip: The four-day expedition over the Presidential Range taken by Bob Meehling, Paul Holgate, Don Rhaesa, Jack Schofield, Dave Alburger, Bob Paine, Carrell Laird, Sandy Shanklin, Howard McConnell, Blaine Rawdon and Winston Connor. Fifty miles were stepped off—not just every-day miles, but rocky, uphill, downhill miles—over challenging and picturesque trails. They were rewarded on one of the days by the best visibility of the whole year, so a trail man in the Mt. Madison Hut said, and from the pinnacle of 5700-foot Mt. Jefferson the party glimpsed the Atlantic Ocean, (125 miles distant), Canada, Massachusetts and the Green Mountains of Vermont.

Most popular diversion: The trips to the seashore made individually by every cabin group. Salt water was tasted and splashed by Rangers for the first time in many months, at Higgins Beach near Portland. Typical of the beach activities were such sights as Marshall Brooks and Bob Clancy showing prowess at touch football and Adrian Smith choosing with John Bartle for a "sand lot" ball game.

Most popular social activity: The dance with the Camp Arcadia girls, our fair neighbors from across the lake, in our lodge last Saturday night. Bob Boyne, Bob Hayes, Sib Lee, Joe Clausen, Merle Sieber and Bud Nold showed plenty of technique in their "Big Applin'" but Dick Blue won the attention of even more lassies with his vocal solos during intermission. Ice cream and soft drinks were on tap and the music was furnished by an automatic phonograph with amplifier.

Even Joe "Harvard" Perry felt young again and was seen cantering around the outskirts of the softly-lit, colorfully-decorated room with a brown-haired co-ed from Missouri. If anyone displayed bashfulness it was certainly not the younger campers.

JAMES WILL SPEAK

Fall campaign of the Republican Party will open in this county August 27 with the largest political rally ever conducted in Whitmarsh Valley . . . on historic Fort Hill and the grounds of the Veterans' Home of William Boulton Dixon Post, Bethlehem pike, Fort Washington . . . 2 P. M.

Principal speakers: Judge Arthur H. James, Sen. James J. Davis, and other candidates. James H. Hoffman, county leader, will assist the Whitmarsh Valley Committee in charge.

Candidate for Governor

YOUNG REPUBLICANS

Of the Main Line are attending the State convention at Harrisburg this Friday and Saturday. Y. R. County Chairman James McGarvey, of Bryn Mawr, heads the delegation, which includes Samuel E. Ewing, Jr., Bryn Mawr, who was a strong primary candidate for State Senator, and Roy I. Gowland, Narberth magistrate.

Magistrate Horace T. Smedley and Roy Gowland, of Narberth; Franklin P. Kromer, Walter B. Lownes, Jr., and C. Howard Meredith, of Lower Merion; and Lower Merion police heads attended the County Justices of the Peace and Chiefs of Police Associations outing near Ambler Tuesday. Guests included Arthur L. Cooke and James Gowland, Narberth.

Best entertainment: The Stunt Night given by the midgets. A burlesque on "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" featured Bill Kennedy as the fetching Snow White, Paul Coleman as Doc, Herb Phillips as Bashful, Ike Kershaw as Sneezy, Howard Irwin as Sleepy, Brook Friel as Grumpy, Charlie Walton as Happy, and Teddy Herbert as Dopey. Another act found Nick Buzby conducting his mates in a "sum-phoney orchestra" and getting unique, if not weird, effects with Kazoos and dishpans.

Most constructive activity: Bill Whiting's life-saving class in which Blaine Rawdon, Bill Thomas, Kent Roberts, Ted Friel and Wins Connor are but a few of those that look like certainties for their red-cross insignia.

Best leather craftsmanship: In Burt Davis' leather shop, Bill Spooner with his stranded leather belt and Paul Coleman with his hand-sewn wallet are the standouts.

Greatest improvement in swimming and diving: John (the human fish) Carlson. No matter where you are in the water you're bound to find Johnny jumping in beside you.

Most amazing first year rifleman: Walt Hayes, who in less than two months has earned his Pro-Marksmanship, Marksman, Marksman Firstclass and Sharpshooter medals, and has to his credit six of the ten bars for the coveted Expert Rifleman medal. With not even a shot at an amusement park

Ray Maxwell, 3, the son of Raymond Maxwell, mail carrier, 104 Forest avenue, Narberth, was cut and bruised Tuesday when hit by a Haverford man's car pulling out of the Forest Service Station, next door to the Maxwells.

HEADLINE VACATION

They're not in OUR TOWN this week simply because the editor feels like giving the readers, just this one week, a vacation from reading headlines, and himself a vacation from writing them.

Next week—double headlines to any reader who can think of a cool-as-a-cucumber way of covering the news, selling and collecting for advertising and subscriptions, getting the paper printed, completing plans for Town and Township, and taking a vacation, all at the same time.

MOSQUITOES

They are bad. The papers said so, about Lansdowne, two weeks ago. But the president of Lansdowne's Borough Council says: "Why should the newspapers select Lansdowne as the most infested mosquito spot in the county? Swarthmore and every other town in Delaware County is complaining. . . . In Ridley Park, for instance, you can snatch mosquitoes out of the air in handfuls."

Cutting down grass and weeds on all vacant lots and spraying all damp and wet spots and pools of water, is needed throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Narberth.

SWIMMING POOL

Aldan Borough Council heard last week a citizen's suggestion for a community swimming pool, free to children, partly financed by a WPA grant, and maintained by small admissions for adults. An idea for Narberth, too.

HEDGES

There are those in Narberth that spiral heavenward and droop wetly over pavements too, occasioning profanity and such. Vacant properties on Meeting House lane and Haverford avenue, where the hedges are most forest-like, have owners. To them, a suggestion: If you can't afford to chop the hedge down, ship it abroad. A good high neglected Narberth hedge, at its borders, should be worth good money to Czechoslovakia.

FIRESIDE

Councilman and Mrs. Roland S. Flier, of Woodside avenue, left Tuesday for a trip to Guatemala, by boat. The George H. Earles, of Haverford, left Monday for Guatemala, by plane.

Burgess Frank A. Schrepfer chose the hottest part of Monday to vacation on Haverford avenue, which was just as cool as Grayling avenue, after all.

Walter J. Scott has quite a few callers these days. His office at 108 Forest avenue, is air-conditioned.

A big fan keeps the Narberth Coal office well ventilated—and did you see that window this week? Miss McCabe, by the way, is on vacation.

Mrs. Edward A. Heyman, of Shirley road, is entertaining at luncheon today. The guests are Mrs. Walter Huss, president of the Woman's Club of Jenkintown; Mrs. Harry J. Fritsch, of Jenkintown; Mrs. Spencer Smith, Miss Mina Lyle, Mrs. Chester McKibben, Mrs. George W. Orth and Mrs. C. E. McMillan.

Mrs. J. Paul Shea, of Bryn Mawr avenue, Penn Valley, and her daughter and son, Mary Lou and Jackie, left Tuesday for several days' stay in Ocean City.

The Donald F. Torreyes, of Wynnewood, formerly of Brookhurst avenue, Narberth, spent the week-end at their cabin at Echo Lake in the Poconos.

The William I. Dothards, Wynnewood road, have returned from a short vacation in Avalon. They have for guest Miss Martha Jennison, Daytona Beach, Florida.

The Edward J. Corrigan, Narberth Hall, sailed Saturday for a ten-day cruise to Bermuda. Later they will visit Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. C. Arley Farmer and Mrs. J. W. Darville, of Woodbine avenue, are motoring through New England.

MEANS—ROUSTON

The marriage of Miss Margaret Rouston, daughter of the W. Maurice Roustons, of Baltimore, and Mr. Albert B. Means, Jr., of Greensboro, N. C., son of the Albert B. Means, Wynnewood, took place 4 P. M. Thursday the 11th, in the First English Lutheran Church, Baltimore.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. W. Maurice Rouston, Jr., wore a gown of candle-glow lace with a matching veil. She carried a bouquet of orchids, gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Jane H. Rigg was the matron of honor. Maid of honor was Miss Margaret C. Badger, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. S. Louis Huyette, 2d, of Ardmore, sister of the groom; Mrs. Charles Wall, Miss Virginia B. Sewell and Mrs. Lonah R. Straw, all of Baltimore.

Mr. Robert Rumford Jones, of Penn Valley, was best man and the ushers included Mr. S. Louis Huyette, 2d, Mr. Howard Buyers, Jr., Mr. Cornelius McGillicuddy, Jr., Mr. John Develin and Mr. John Dunlap.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. Means and his bride will be at home at Greensboro, after September 1.

TWILIGHT GAMES END . . . BALL TEAM TURNS PRO.

Narberth seems headed for another Main Line championship with its team, but.

Since Manager Gene Davis fell ill, the morale of the players has been fine on the diamond, daytime. But the twilight games went to seed, because the players didn't feel like playing. Evidently this was because they weren't paid enough to make it worth their while. Play for fun?—Haw!

A few years back, Narberth paid only its battery, as Gladwyne does today. Then—so goes one viewpoint—dependable local players grew harder to get, and some semi-pros had to be imported. The team, composed mainly of local players—Fleck, Humphries, Heckel, et al—was able to win three championships in one year. But a part-paid, part-amateur organization is part-friction, too. So the team reached this year's status. . . . Players receive only a couple of dollars or so per game, and some of them travel quite a distance to play. Perhaps they shouldn't be asked to play twilight games. Perhaps they shouldn't be asked to come to play at all.—Wouldn't the esprit de corps be better if the team regained a local amateur basis?

—Well, what's wrong with their esprit?

This: It stank to high heaven when Mickey Gavin played a benefit game. . . . He used to play for Narberth, and two years ago the town and the team were showing big hearts and tearful eyes, when he lost, lingeringly, painfully, a leg. He made a game comeback, and wearing a new leg he pitched for Narberth recently in a scheduled game, at the playground, one twilight. Or started to pitch.

Unfortunately, of all his teammates, the only ones who, for his sake and the spectators' sake, chose to show up, were Harry Fox and Bill Reynolds. To get that game started it was necessary to recruit players from the grandstand.

Esprit de corps? After that night, the spectators stayed away in great numbers, and this Wednesday, the scheduled twilight game with the Philadelphia Police team had to be called off. No more twilight ball.

In defense of the team's conduct in setting the example for people to stay away from twilight games—and especially Mickey Gavin's—it is said that after all, the players aren't local boys, and it's expecting a lot of them, to make twilight appearances for little or no pay.

Exactly. They are not local boys. Joe Rubincam is the only regular Narberth member of the team, and he is only used as a substitute. George Gazella, a new resident, has been playing, and so, too, has Dan McGarry, Jr. But the others?—The ever-dependable Bill Reynolds. . . . Harry Fox who drove 60 miles from the shore to play a game at Narberth recently. . . . They have the Narberth spirit though they come from elsewhere. . . . But the others?—Paid semi-pros, with the paid semi-pro's will to win, well manifested in daytime—but without the extra fighting spirit, and without the extra neighborly good-natured dependability, that can be expected of home talent, of amateurs of the game.

Meanwhile, Narberth players who somehow did not get to first base on the Narberth team, are playing elsewhere. Howdy (Harold) Powell is with the new Ardmore team that defeated Narberth on their first encounter recently. Ock (Howard) Smith, who pitched L. M. High to its only title, in '33, got 5 hits out of 5 times at bat, playing for Gladwyne against Narberth recently. Harvey Cook, Jr., who made his Michigan State varsity team last year, is with Berwyn. There are other Narberth players, younger and older, who can be called on. . . .

The Legion-sponsored Junior team and Dick Wallace's boy-team show an interest in baseball—as do their sponsors—that augurs well for the sport's future here. When Gene Davis gets well, let's start a long-range plan for a Narberth ball team that is made up of amateurs of baseball and of Narberth.

NARBERTH BRIDGE CLUB

Saturday evening, August 13, top score: William Greenwood and Mrs. McBride; second place, Mrs. J. H. Baker and Mrs. Frank McEnamen.

Monday evening, August 15, top: Mrs. Walter J. Scott and Mrs. Frank X. Purcell; second place, Allen Shubert and Mrs. C. Alfred Peeney.

shooting gallery to his credit before coming to camp. Walt makes all the hard tricks look easy. Standing, sitting, prone, or with mirrors—they're all the same to him. Tennent Buzby is in close pursuit, when he isn't composing new tunes on the piano.

"Deepest" concentration of season: By Bob Mahon and Leon Herbert, co-builders of an underwater diving helmet. With Bob Reed pumping air by tire pump, they set a new camp record with a submarine descent of 17 feet. They walk in perfect comfort and bring up fantastic reports of the unexplored lake floor.

Most startling discovery: That we have only about nine days until the Farewell Banquet and eleven until we start for home. We've switched to Daylight Saving Time, but there should be a summer-saving time!

Geuting Employees Hold Outing

A gymkhana and picnic was given last Saturday by the Sunshine Club of the A. H. Geuting Organization at the Brookline Country Club, followed by a dinner and dancing at the club house in the evening.

The entire Geuting organization of executives and employees, numbering well above one hundred, participated in the sports events of the afternoon.

The Track Events Committee consisted of Joseph T. Geuting, Jr., and Craig L. Embree; men's baseball, Bill Piper, Charles Mallon, James Hanrahan; girls' baseball, Claire McMullin and Edna Hildesheim; quilts, Ben Tompkins; swimming, Buster Bye and Angela Ipry; tennis, Frank Gorgas.

Organized thirty years ago by Anthony H. Geuting, this annual event of the Geuting organization is looked forward to with fun-loving anticipation each year.

MRS. AMELIA J. BARR

Funeral services were held 2 P. M. Monday at Mrs. Frank Lentz' home, Gladwyne, for her mother, Mrs. Amelia J. Barr, who died August 11. Interment was in Fernwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Barr, who had lived in Narberth five years until she moved to Gladwyne, is survived by her daughter; her son, Bert S. Smith, Brookhurst avenue; grandchildren, Orville Lentz and Mrs. Alexander C. Betus, and great-grandchild, Charlie Betus.

ELIZABETH DONAHUE

Resident of Narberth 37 years, Miss Elizabeth Donahue died, aged 83, in Bryn Mawr Hospital last Thursday. Services were Saturday at St. Margaret's, with interment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Miss Donahue lived with a brother, Joseph, at 108 Conway. She was a sister of the late Patrick Donahue, Narberth taxi man for many years.

"Three Blind Mice" Heads Narberth Bill

Loretta Young and Joel McCrea are in it, and it's well worth seeing, this Friday and Saturday.

If you liked "Dead End," you'll like "Winterset," coming Monday and Tuesday with Burgess Meredith and Margo. As a play it won honors; as a movie it's another hit, so much so that it is returned by popular request.

In a lighter vein is "Gold Diggers in Paris," with Rudy Vallee and lots of music and fun and gold diggers.—Wednesday and Thursday.

Ann Nagle comes next week-end in a great British-made film, "Victoria the Great."

EGYPTIAN

The Ritz Brothers take to the hills in "Kentucky Moonshine" which is now playing at the Egyptian Theater. The Ritz Brothers play a mad trio of hillbillies in this new comedy. Tony Martin and Marjorie Weaver are featured in the cast.

All the heroic adventure, stirring romance and endless excitement of the story Robert Louis Stevenson always considered his best is packed into "Kidnapped." Warner Baxter and Freddie Bartholomew head the cast in "Kidnapped" which comes to the Egyptian next Monday and Tuesday, August 22 and 23.

Thrills, heart throbs, boyish loyalties and regeneration are the dramatic elements in "Lord Jeff" which teams Freddie Bartholomew and Mickey Rooney. This new picture marks an advance in the careers of these boys who enact touching roles as juvenile seamen who face the difficulties of maturity with courage. "Lord Jeff" will be shown at the Egyptian next Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 24-25-26-27 and 28.

Is your wiring
CHEATING YOU?

Like hidden expenses of all kinds, your house wiring is out of sight. Is it out of mind, too? If it is, you may be daily cheated of a full-measure of current. You get full voltage into your meter. If your wiring facilities choke your supply beyond it, you are missing full comfort, convenience, safety, economy and efficiency of electrical usage.

FIRST, copper wiring must be adequate in size (large enough core of copper) to care for every conceivable use of electricity . . . to supply full-measure current.

SECOND, lighting and duplex convenience outlets and switches must be sufficient to fill all your possible needs.
